Candidate Statement

Hi, I'm Ash, I'm the co-chair of LGBTIQA+ Young Greens, and the former chair of Sheffield University Young Greens. I've been active in the party for years, as well as being a former local councillor, NUS representative, Student's Union councillor, and Student's Union Part Time Officer. I've got buckets of experience writing, amending and interpeting constitutional documents, I'm responsive and enthusiastic, and I've never held a Young Greens committee role before, which I think makes me well placed for a role on the dmocracy and accountability committee, where impartiality is key.

I'm a young green for a few more years, by virtue of being a full time student, and I'd love the opportunity to use that time to be able to give something back to the Young Greens, who I think are the greatest campainging force in the party, and who have supported me to no end through my first decade as a party member.
