Candidate Statement

My name is Emily Main, and I am hoping to become a Non-Portfolio Officer for the Young Green Womxn committee! I am a 23-year-old History student who specialises in gender studies in early modern England. Since 2019 I have worked alongside the Derbyshire Green Party to deliver support and a lot of leaflets for the Target to Win campaign! As well as standing as the first Green Party candidate for Sutton in the May election. I have also worked as a PETA (People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals) campus rep which involved hosting stalls on campus to discuss sustainability and environmental issues. As a passionate activist and feminist, I would love to work within a team of other young womxn to deliver support and engage fellow party members. For me, womxn's issues are at the forefront of my concerns, and to work in a team of people who share the same ethos would be incredibly exciting. Prioritising these issues, coupled with party ideologies and environmental agendas will create positive and equal change in our communities.
