Candidate Statement

I am the enthusiastic, dedicated, just leader you are looking for.

To begin, I am passionate about campaigning and democracy. This is shown by my wealth of experience promoting and representing communities, first for the Labour Party as High Peak Youth Officer in 2017-2019 and then as an active volunteer for London Greens since January 2020. Moreover, I regularly makes positive and constructive decisions on structure and direction for many people thanks to my current roles as a Co-Chair of Wild Forest Theatre and as a teacher. I am eager to make an impact that is helpful to create a fairer future. This is demonstrated most recently by how I proactively participated in the art charity Tender's anti-racism campaign where I created material that promoted awareness of the intersections between race and disability that block a person's ability to report abuse.

As a person, I am affable and a good listener, making it very easy for me to connect with anyone, including those who have different viewpoints to mine. Yet, I always have a moral standard I stick to: my aim is to fight for equity, not just equality, so I will never be a doormat for injustice to walk over. I will be able to combine my approachable and determined personality with all of my experience leading and campaigning to the role of Co-Chair.

Vote for me, because I am the candidate that you can rely on.
