- s clarified), nor additional clauses introduced; and the change is for the
- 64 purposes of correcting errors or inconsistencies in typography, spelling, or
- 65 grammar; clarifying a meaning, or correcting the numbering of clauses.

66 Article 4: The Standing Orders

- 4.1 The Standing Orders is a document which governs any elections within the
- Young Greens and the processes of Convention and a General Meeting.
- 4.2 The Standing Orders must be followed at all times. They can be amended by a two-thirds majority at a General Meeting.
- 71 4.3 Where there is a perceived contradiction between the Constitution and
- 72 Standing Orders, the Democracy and Accountability Committee shall rule on the
- 73 correct interpretation with precedence given to the Constitution.

4 Article 5: Complaints and Disputes

5.1 There shall be a Complaints and Disputes Subcommittee (C&D) of the Democracy and Accountability Committee.

5.2 C&D will be constituted of a permanent representative from the Democracy and Accountability Committee (hereby known as the DAC Rep), who will chair the group, as well as four volunteers from the Young Greens membership, to make five total members. Two of these four spaces should be advertised first to the Young Greens Liberation Group Co-Chairs, with priority given to Young Greens of Colour and Young Greens Women of Colour, before being opened to the wider membership if no volunteers step forward who are Liberation Group Co-Chairs. Where there are too many volunteers, selection will be made by DAC; candidates may be put on a reserve list that would be used when other members are recused (see 2.). Where there are too few volunteers, the remaining membership will be drawn by lots from: Co-Convenors of Groups of the Regions of England, and Wales; Green Students Committee members; and Young Green Liberation Group Co-Chairs. At least two members of C&D should not be self-defining men.

5.3. C&D should have 5 participating members for every case dealt with. A reserve list of members may be created by DAC in order to ensure that this is possible, as members may be taking leave of absence. It may also be that members have personal interests in the outcome of a case, or possess personal or professional relations, amicable or otherwise, with those involved in a case. Applications for recusal may be made by members of C&D, DAC, EC any Young Green directly involved within a case, and are submitted to DAC, and may be done so by or on the behalf of a member of C&D. A majority vote from DAC determines if a member is recused. If the DAC Rep is recused, C&D is to vote on an acting Chair for a case, who must be a member of C&D. Recusal should happen before the point of formal intervention (the implementation of Section B.3).

5.4 C&D membership will be from its initiation until the following Young Greens Convention, after which C&D will be re-formulated following Article 5.2. It is permissible to re-volunteer. Complaints and Disputes will be dealt with by a single C&D only and will not be passed on between re-formulations (except in the case of resignations). This may lead to persons carrying out C&D duties for as long as a complaint of dispute takes to judge on.

5.5 Members are to submit complaints based on breaches of the Young Greens Constitution, Young Greens Standing Orders, Green Party Constitution, Green Party Standing Orders, Green Party Code of Conduct or any other organisational policies of the Green Party of England and Wales and Young Greens, including anti-harassment and Safe Space policies.

5.6. Any complaints about another member of the Young Greens, or disputes that a member feels they need help resolving, should go in the first instance to the C&D. If for whatever reason a member does not feel comfortable approaching any
 C&D member, they may go to Young Greens Staff, Young Greens Non-Portfolio Officer with the Equality and Diversity Portfolio or to the Democracy and Accountability Committee.

5.7 In the first instance when a complaint is lodged, a member of the C&D will speak to involved parties and attempt to resolve the issue informally whilst maintaining clear records, in accordance with Article 5.14.

- 5.8 Where any involved parties feel that hasn't worked, or where any parties refuse the informal intervention, the complaint should be made in writing. All involved parties will have equal chance to state their own case.
- 5.9 C&D Subcommittee will consider the complaint and make a judgment, in writing, to all parties. Judgements should include a ruling on whether there have been breaches of the Young Greens Constitution, Young Greens Standing Orders, Green Party Constitution, Green Party Standing Orders, Green Party Code of Conduct or any other organisational policies of the Green Party of England and Wales and Young Greens, including anti-harassment and Safe Space policies.
- 5.10 After a judgement, C&D Subcommittee will make a recommendation of action to either or both complainants. In cases where there is a need for disciplinary action, to DAC or another relevant body where appropriate. These disciplinary actions may include, but are not limited to:
- 5.10.1 Ban from Young Greens Events/Spaces, for a period of up to 12 months
- 5.10.2 Suspension of Young Greens membership, for a period of up to 12 months
- 5.10.3 Censure from holding a position within the Young Greens, for a period of up to 12 months
- 5.10.4 Permanent termination of membership, as outlined in Article 1.7
- 5.11 Where the case is deemed to be serious enough, C&D Subcommittee may recommend a suspension for the period of the investigation and which must be agreed by the Chair of the Democracy and Accountability Committee.
- 5.12 If the recommended action(s) following a judgment are not followed by the involved parties, C&D should make recommendations of action to the EC or DAC.
- 5.13 If an individual; wishes to appeal a judgment made by C&D, they may do so by communicating to DAC. The grounds for an appeal are if new evidence emerges, or if C&D broke procedure. DAC should look over the evidence presented by the appellant and may make a ruling on whether the appeals process should be initiated. In this case, appeals will be heard by a new group formulated on the same basis as C&D in 5.3 but excluding C&D members that made the original judgment. This may be drawn from the list of reserve members.
- 5.14 There should be clear minutes and records of actions kept of all C&D meetings. These may be disclosed beyond C&D at the discretion of C&D Subcommittee, and a need for confidentiality and fair treatment must be considered. C&D are to submit reports of each case to DAC. DAC will then include a general, anonymous summary of these in their annual report.
- 5.15 A response to all initial complaints should be made to the initiator of the complaint within 48 hours of receiving the complaint, in which the standard process is outlined to them and how C&D intend to carry out the informal mediation.
- 5.16 Informal mediation should start within 5 days of a complaint or dispute being lodged.
- 5.17 A judgment should be made within 3 weeks of a complaint or dispute being lodged in writing following informal mediation failing or where the written statement refuses informal mediation.

- 5.18 Any requests for updates from any involved party should be responded to within 72 hours.
- 5.19 Extensions to these deadlines should be sought from DAC in extenuating circumstances
- 5.20 Malicious complaints made against a Young Greens member are serious and a breach of the principles outlined in the Constitution as well as the GPEW Code
- of Conduct. C&D Subcommittee will dismiss malicious complaints and may notify
- 172 relevant parties that a malicious complaint has been made.

Alternatively, statements may be removed from the YG RoPS by a simple majority vote of the Executive Committee, with the consent of DAC. All statements removed between Conventions are to be reported to the following Young Greens Annual General Meeting by DAC and recorded in DAC monthly reports.
- 6.5 After five years of a statement being entered into the YG RoPS, it is considered to be in grace as recorded by DAC. This means that it will be reported to be in grace to the following Young Greens Annual General Meeting by DAC, who will give Convention the chance to vote on whether it should stay in the YG RoPS, which requires a simple majority. This restarts the five-year placement of that statement into the YG RoPS.
- 198 6.6 The YG RoPS should be publicly available.
